

Summary of 2005-08 incidents at UC involving anti-animal research extremists (partial list)

| Incident | Date/ time frame | Target | Claim of Responsibility, Link to Animal Research Activism, and/or Arrests |
|--|-------------------------|---|--|
| UC Berkeley (UCB) | | | |
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Information about the construction of the Li Ka-Shing Center for Biomedical and Health Sciences building, which will include animal research laboratories, posted on activist website along with the names and addresses of the architect, contractor and UCB staff associated with the project. Threatening e-mails have been received and police reports have been filed. | April - June 2008 | UC Berkeley staff, project architect and contractor staff | Contact Bob Sanders at Berkeley Public Affairs |
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> String of Animal rights related vandalism including broken windows, overturned trash cans, and other forms of vandalism. There have been more than 20 reports of damage to UC Berkeley researchers' homes, including broken windows and vandalized cars. Names and addresses of scientists and staff posted on activist websites. | August 2007 - July 2008 | Multiple UC Berkeley scientists and staff | Contact Bob Sanders at Berkeley Public Affairs |
| UC Davis (UCD) | | | |
| Firecracker placed in mailbox at researcher home, causing minor damage. | 2007 | UC Davis researcher | Unknown/Under investigation. |
| Activists photographed cars parked outside of UC Davis facility and posted some license plate numbers on animal rights website. | 2006 | UC Davis researcher | Information posted on indybay.org website (license plate information has since been removed) |
| Car window broken at home of UC Davis researcher. | 2006 | UC Davis researcher | Unknown/Under investigation. |

| Incident | Date/ time frame | Target | Claim of Responsibility, Link to Animal Research Activism, and/or Arrests |
|--|------------------|---------------------------|--|
| UC Irvine (UCI) | | | |
| No incidents reported 2005-08. | | | |
| UC Los Angeles (UCLA) | | | |
| An unoccupied UCLA vanpool vehicle was set on fire at a park-and-ride facility in Irvine. Nobody was injured; damage to the van was extensive. | June 2008 | | Animal Liberation Front (ALF) took credit for the incident. |
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. An incendiary device is ignited on the porch of UCLA professor's house causing extensive damage to the property. 2. The name and address of the UCLA professor was posted on activist websites. | February 2008 | UCLA professor | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Animal Liberation Front (ALF) took credit for the incident. |
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The home of UCLA professor sustains over $20,000 in damages after being flooded by animal extremists who broke a window and inserted a garden hose into the house, and who left a note threatening to burn the house down next time. 2. The name and address of the UCLA professor was posted on activist websites. | October 2007 | UCLA professor | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Animal Liberation Front (ALF) took credit for the incident. |
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. A package containing razor blades, animal fur, and oil mailed to UCLA professor's home and addressed to his wife. The package told her to persuade her husband to stop his animal research, or "What he does to the animals we will do to you." 2. The name and address of the UCLA professor was posted on activist websites. | July 2007 | UCLA professor and spouse | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Animal Liberation Front (ALF) took credit for the incident. |

| Incident | Date/ time frame | Target | Claim of Responsibility, Link to Animal Research Activism, and/or Arrests |
|---|-------------------|------------------------------------|---|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. A firebomb was placed under the car of UCLA professor, which was parked in front of his home. Police were called to the scene and portions of professor's neighborhood were evacuated. Although the fuse on the firebomb had been lit, it failed to detonate prior to police intervention. 2. The name and address of the UCLA professor was posted on activist websites. | February 2007 | UCLA professor | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Animal Liberation Brigade took credit for the firebombing. |
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. A firebomb is placed on the doorstep of an elderly neighbor of UCLA professor. The firebomb was intended for UCLA professor and left at the wrong address. The device failed to ignite. 2. The name and address of the UCLA professor was posted on activist websites. | June 2006 | Intended target was UCLA professor | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Animal Liberation Front (ALF) took credit for the incident. |
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. UCLA faculty and administrators received hundreds of threatening emails, phone calls, and home visits. The persons behind these emails and phone calls asserted that the harassment would not stop until the employees ceased using animals in their research. 2. The names and addresses of several of these UCLA faculty and administrators were posted on activist websites. | Summer 2006 | UCLA faculty and administrators | Unknown/Under investigation. The names and addresses of several of these UCLA faculty and staff were posted on activist websites. |
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Campaign of harassment is directed at UCLA professor. Animal rights extremists repeatedly terrorized the family in their own home by using tactics such as throwing firecrackers late at night onto | April - July 2006 | UCLA professor and family | Unknown/Under investigation. The professor's home phone number and address was posted on activist websites. |

| Incident | Date/ time frame | Target | Claim of Responsibility, Link to Animal Research Activism, and/or Arrests |
|---|------------------|---|--|
| the family's property. 2. The professor's home phone number and address posted on activist websites. | | | |
| 1. UCLA Primate Freedom posted UCLA professor's home phone number and address on its website. 2. Shortly thereafter, professor began receiving threatening phone calls at his home. | August 2005 | UCLA professor | Unknown/Under investigation. Professor's home address and phone number posted on UCLA Primate Freedom website. |
| UC Merced (UCM) | | | |
| No incidents reported 2005-08. | | | |
| UC Riverside (UCR) | | | |
| No incidents reported 2005-08. | | | |
| UC San Diego (UCSD) | | | |
| Bomb threat and a fake bomb planted at the Leichtag Family Foundation Biomedical Research site on the UCSD La Jolla campus. | December 2007 | UCSD animal research laboratories. | Richard Sills was arrested in January and pleaded guilty March 11, 2008, to a federal charge of making threats involving animal enterprises. On July 28, 2008, Sills was sentenced to 15 months in federal prison, plus 3 years of probation. Sills has also been ordered to pay $10,419.01 in restitution. |
| UC San Francisco (UCSF) | | | |
| Verbal harassment and criminal threats | April 2008 | UCSF researcher (while in City of Berkeley) | Unknown/Under investigation. Indicated in their statement animal research or use of animals in research |
| Four reports of telephone threats to four separate homes | April 2008 | UCSF researchers | Unknown/Under investigation. Indicated in their statement |

| Incident | Date/ time frame | Target | Claim of Responsibility, Link to Animal Research Activism, and/or Arrests |
|---|------------------|-------------------------|---|
| | | | animal research or use of animals in research. |
| Four separate reports of vandalism/graffiti. | 2008 | UCSF campus (Parnassus) | Unknown/Under investigation. |
| Six reports of criminal threats to 5 individuals. (on individual received threats on two separate occasions) | 2007 | UCSF researchers | Unknown/Under investigation. Indicated in their statement animal research or use of animals in research. |
| Two reports of vandalism/graffiti. | 2007 | UCSF facility | Unknown/Under investigation. |
| One report of vandalism/graffiti. | 2005 | UCSF facility | Unknown/Under investigation. |
| UC Santa Barbara (UCSB) | | | |
| Animal activists did a "drive-by" of faculty home. | March 2008 | UCSB faculty member | Unknown/Under investigation. |
| Animal activists did a "drive-by" of faculty home. | November 2007 | UCSB faculty member | Unknown/Under investigation. |
| Animal activists visited homes of faculty and staff. Protests included the use of bull horns, signs, and persons wearing masks. | September 2007 | UCSB faculty and staff | Unknown/Under investigation. |
| UC Santa Cruz (UCSC) | | | |
| Anti-animal research extremists firebombed the homes of two UCSC researchers just before dawn on Aug. 2. In one case, a vehicle was destroyed. In the second, the fire forced the researcher, his wife and two children to flee the home from an upstairs window. | August 2008 | UCSC faculty members | Unknown/under investigation. Referred to Santa Cruz Police Department and FBI |
| Six masked animal rights extremists disrupted a child's birthday party at the home of a UCSC faculty member and confronted her husband at the door, striking him on | February 2008 | UCSC faculty member | Inquiry referred to Santa Cruz Police Department and FBI |

| Incident | Date/ time frame | Target | Claim of Responsibility, Link to Animal Research Activism, and/or Arrests |
|--|-------------------------|----------------------|--|
| the hand. | | | |
| Four UCSC scientists have been targeted at their homes by a series of chalking graffiti, epithets shouted through megaphones, and other vandalism. | February 2008 | Four UCSC scientists | Unknown/Under investigation. Indicated in their statements animal research or use of animals in research. |