

UC OPENS DOORS TO COMMUNITY COLLEGE STUDENTS

UC enrolls more community college students than any university of its caliber in the nation. These students don't only enroll at UC—they succeed, earning degrees and contributing to an educated, upwardly mobile California workforce.

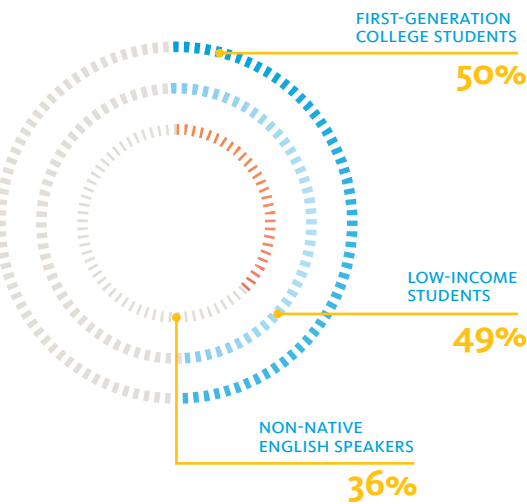

NEARLY A THIRD OF UC UNDERGRADS COME FROM COMMUNITY COLLEGES

That amounts to more than 36,000 transfers each year studying across our nine undergrad campuses.

TRANSFER SERVES STUDENTS FROM ALL WALKS OF LIFE

Students from a broad range of economic and social backgrounds attain a world-class UC education by starting at community college.

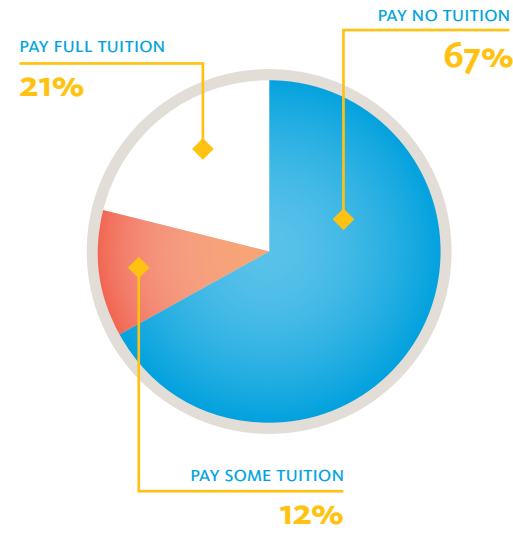

2 OUT OF 3
TRANSFER STUDENTS WHO APPLY TO UC GET IN.

92%
OF UC TRANSFER STUDENTS
COME FROM A CALIFORNIA
COMMUNITY COLLEGE.

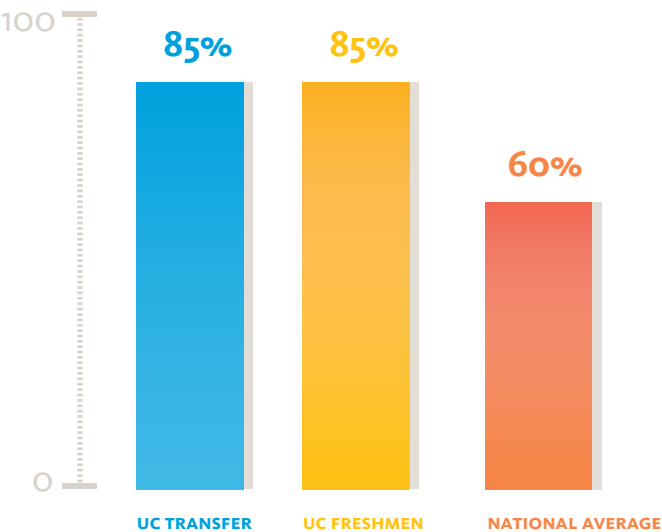

MOST TRANSFER STUDENTS PAY NO TUITION

Almost two-thirds of transfer students have their tuition fully covered through UC's Blue and Gold Opportunity Plan.

UC'S TRANSFER STUDENTS GRADUATE AT HIGH RATES...

In fact, they succeed at rates equal to or better than students who started as freshmen.

...AND GO ON TO DO WELL IN THE WORKFORCE

Within a decade of completing their UC degrees, 51 percent of those working in California are making salaries that place them among the top third of income earners in the state.

